DR. S. C. CLARK FOR THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Dr. S. C. Clark, Republican candidate for member of the house of representatives of the Thirty-sixth legislative assembly from this county, is a native of Kansas, having been born at Oskaloosa, Kansas, December 15th, 1873. He attended and finished a full course at the public schools of his native town. He studied medicine at the Kansas City Medical College, Kansas City, Missouri, graduating therefrom in 1895. He practiced medicine for about two years in Kansas, and thereafter came farther west; he then went to the Republic of Mexico, where for a time he served as a surgeon in the employ of the Mexican Central Railway, returning thereafter to Colorado.

In the Centennial State he entered the service of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company. He moved to the Territory three years ago, in the employ of the same company, and was assigned to duty at the Madrid Coal camp, where he still remains. He is a Republican in politics and has strongly supported his party since he became of age. He is very popular and well known in the southern part of county, where, in addition to his official duties as surgeon of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company, he has an extensive practice. He is a very intelligent, educated and ambitious young man, anxious and desirous of making his way in the world and of being of service to his fellow citizens. His nomination was made at the request of the delegations from the southern part of the county in the Republican county convention and was at the request of the Republicans in that part of the county. He is respected and esteemed at his home at Madrid, in this city, and in southern Santa Fe County. If elected, there is no doubt that he will prove one of the best and most valuable members of the assembly. The people of Santa Fe County will serve their own best interests as well as those of the county by electing him by a handsome majority.

Do not fail to attend the Republican rally at the court house tomorrow evening. The New Mexican advises all good citizens, regardless of party, to do so. The speeches to be made there will, this paper believes, help Democrats thoroughly to understand the situation and will induce some of them to vote for Senator Andrews. It is a good plan to hear both sides of the political questions and the New Mexican therefore urges all good, patriotic citizens, Republicans and Democrats, independent Republicans and Socialists, to attend the rally.

Delegate Rodey said last Wednesday evening: "I am a Republican," but before coming here he notified the Democratic Territorial central committee, which arranged the meeting at the court house.

BERNALILLO COMMITTEE NOMINATES WILKERSON FOR REPRESENTATIVE FROM THE DISTRICT INSTEAD OF CLARK M. CARR, SELECTED BY MCKINLEY COUNTY.

According to the Albuquerque Citizen the Republican committee of Bernalillo County has placed the name of Thomas N. Wilkerson, of Albuquerque, on the Republican ticket as candidate for member of the house of representatives of the Thirty-sixth legislative assembly for the district composed of Bernalillo and McKinley Counties, instead of Clark M. Carr, nominated for that position by the county convention of McKinley County. The Citizen gives the situation in the following:

"At a meeting today of the central committee of the representative district composed of Bernalillo and McKinley Counties, it was resolved to reject the nomination by the Republicans of McKinley County, and instead Thomas N. Wilkerson, of this city, was nominated by the committee for the position.

"The Citizen is informed that this change is made for the following reasons: There are thirty-five hundred Republican voters in Bernalillo County and only about 300 in McKinley County. That county did not send a delegation to the district convention to nominate a candidate for joint representative, and has not affirmed with the Republicans in the selection of the nominee. Mr. Carr is an excellent man and his family resides in this city, but his nomination is not satisfactory to the Republicans of this county, and hence his rejection, which is principally caused by the action of the Republicans of McKinley County ignoring the convention called to nominate a joint candidate for representative. Mr. Wilkerson is one of the ablest attorneys of this city, a radical Republican, a good speaker, and he will make a splendid record in the legislature. He will poll the full Republican vote of this county, and will be elected by a large majority."

THANK YOU, MR. RODEY!

The editor of the New Mexican is under obligations to Delegate Rodey for a remark he made in a speech in this city on Wednesday evening last. He stated, so this paper is informed by a stenographer who took notes, that "It would pay the Territory of New Mexico to pension the editor of this paper at the rate of $50,000 per annum in order to give some one else the public printing and to stop the fight of the New Mexican on joint statehood. The New Mexican is glad to hear that Mr. Rodey has such a good opinion of the paper and its editor and assures Mr. Rodey that a complete agreement exists between that gentleman and the editor of the New Mexican on the pension proposition. Indeed, this paper will go farther and will say to Mr. Rodey that it will meet him half way and will take less per annum than he suggested, although there is no doubt that the views of this paper on the joint statehood question will help to defeat the joint statehood project and that in a great degree. Right here it is the duty of this journal to remark that its position on the joint statehood issue is taken because it sincerely and conscientiously believes that the great majority of the people wish only for single statehood within the present Territorial limits and under the present name and that this majority is willing to wait for some time in a Territorial condition rather than accept joint statehood with Arizona during their coming year.

"Santa Fe is the political storm center of this Territory,"—Albuquerque Citizen.

Beg your pardon. It has been very quiet here during the entire campaign and is rather dull at present. To be sure, there has been great activity at Territorial Republican headquarters, where Chairman Bursum, Secretary Safford and a corps of stenographers and clerks have been actively engaged in campaign work; in the city and county there are political campaigns now on, but there are no storms and there are no political disturbances. Each side is trying to win and the candidates on each party ticket are at work, but all in a peaceful and quiet manner. The esteemed Citizen should try again.

Delegate Rodey, in a speech at the court house, on Wednesday evening, asserted that the plot to undo him was hatched in the office of this paper several weeks before the Albuquerque convention which nominated Senator W. H. Andrews as the candidate of the Republican party for delegate to Congress. There is no use in denying this soft impeachment, but it is well to remark here that of late Mr. Rodey's assertions and statements have been rather erratic and a good many of them were not and are not based upon facts. To be sure, no one blames Mr. Rodey for being disappointed, but he should not allow his disappointment and his chagrin to run away with him.

A recent issue of the Albuquerque Citizen teems with editorial paragraphs advocating the election of Senator W. H. Andrews, the regular Republican nominee for delegate to Congress. Better late than never.

PARKER IS EITHER GULLIBLE OR UNSCRUPULOUS.

Judge Parker has evidently been goaded by Chairman Tom Taggart and his confederates of the Democratic National Committee into some activity and into making some rather ill-advised and improper speeches. In fact, during the past two weeks, Judge Parker has not at all come up to the expectations of the people, both on his own political side and in the Republican party who thought very well of him until he commenced to make statements and assertions not borne out by facts and until he plunged into accusations against President Roosevelt and Republicans of national reputation, which, to say the least, were based upon heresy and rumor only. This phase of the campaign has been taken up by the leading papers of the country, one of them, the Kansas City Star, very influential in parts of the middle west and independent in party politics, says that Judge Parker was regrettably disingenuous in his Madison Square Garden speech recently. In discussing the relations of Mr. Cortelyou to the administration and the Republican campaign he constantly regarded him as still the Secretary of Labor and Commerce, knowing, of course, that Mr. Cortelyou observed the proper ethics of the situation when he resigned his Cabinet position before he took charge of the canvass.

But that was not Parker's worst offense. He once more demonstrated that he is either the most gullible or the most unscrupulous man ever chosen by a great party for the Presidency. Opinion will incline toward the former theory, for the reason that the Democratic nominee has repeatedly made himself ridiculous by accepting figures and statements from the most reckless advisers. But through over-confidence in those who have his ear, or through an audacity that would be amazing in any man aspiring to the Presidency, he charged Mr. Roosevelt with having selected Mr. Cortelyou for chairman in order that the former Secretary might "hold up" those corporations about which he had gathered information. In other words, he accuses the President of first collecting evidence of unlawful practices on the part of the trusts, and other big concerns, and then giving them assurances of immunity from prosecution in consideration of big campaign contributions.

Thus Judge Parker accepts the absurd representations of his own Wall Street promoters, made to cover their own stupendous scheme to gain control of the government by the generous use of money.

In giving his name and his utterances to such a charge Judge Parker does much more harm to himself than to the President. He cannot make even Democrats believe that President Roosevelt, who has courageously and persistently worked for high political government standards and who has disregarded mere political expediency more than any of his predecessors, would be guilty of making a bargain with the grafters whose special privileges he has crossed in the enforcement of the laws.

That sort of thing will not go down with the American people. Roosevelt has kept himself freer from undesirable obligations than any other man who has run for the Presidency on either the Democratic or the Republican ticket since the Civil War. If elected he will go into office untrammelled. And not even Judge Parker—whether he is himself deceived or whether he is merely doing the bidding of politicians he knows to be unscrupulous—can injure the President by this amazing attack.

The Democratic campaign managers are endeavoring to deceive the voters by disreputable fiction and by untrue and venomous attacks on Republican candidates and on the Republican Territorial administration. The voters should not be deceived by these low tactics and the New Mexican thinks they will not be. The charges made by the Democratic bosses and their allies, Delegate Rodey and some of the so-called Independent Republicans, have either no foundation at all or are misstatements of facts or are garbled extracts from the records, statements and speeches of Republican candidates. It is certainly high time that the voters were no longer caught by such chaff and the New Mexican thinks that they will not be in this case. It certainly looks remarkably well for the Republican legislative and county tickets in a majority of the counties of the Territory, and indeed it seems as if an absolute majority for Mr. Andrews is assured.

Judge Parker is doing some strenuous work for his election these days, in the way of making speeches, addressing delegations and writing letters. He is rather late in the day. He is already distanced and cannot by any possibility make a home stretch in such a manner as to beat President Roosevelt.

Mr. Rodey in his speech boasted of what he did for the people of Santa Fe by giving them Fort Marcy, so that their children might be educated. Well, it's a cinch that he couldn't have given it to Albuquerque, although the chances are that he would have tried to do so if he had had the necessary transportation facilities.

It seems that the so-called Independent Republicans of Bernalillo County have endorsed the regular Republican legislative and county ticket, but have hoisted the name of B. S. Rodey at the head of the ticket as their candidate. This is a peculiar condition of affairs and the only explanation of it will be found in the result of the election in that county Tuesday next. With fair play on the part of the regular Republican organization, which has the distribution of ballots at its disposal, well posted correspondents of the New Mexican believe that Senator Andrews should and will receive a plurality ranging from 1,200 up. A few days will tell the tale. Whatever the result, the Republican campaign managers in the county will do well to remember that the people will not forget.

From Mr. Rodey's tale of woe as told in this city on Wednesday evening last, it is fair to presume that he is very guileless and innocent when it comes to political affairs in New Mexico. Indeed, he may be called verdant and green, if he really believes this statement, that as late as thirty-six hours before the Albuquerque convention on September 12th, he was sure of the re-nomination as candidate of the Republican party for delegate to the Fifty-ninth Congress. In another part of his speech, he said that the nefarious and wicked treachery in his case was hatched in the office of the New Mexican six weeks before that time. If he believes this latter, his veridancy and freshness are still more remarkable.

After hearing the speeches of Delegate Rodey and Mr. Catron on Wednesday evening, one of the listeners said they reminded him of a time when he was caught out in a storm. It was a fearfully dark night and the thunder was terrific, but there was very little lightning, so he thought he would pray, and he did so by saying: "O, Lord, if it makes no difference to you, I would like to have more lightning and not quite so much thunder."

Every good citizen, regardless of party, should vote for Teleforo Rivera for assessor on Tuesday next. He is a reliable, honest and respectable citizen, a property owner and head of a family. He has served the people for two terms in that office some years ago and gave satisfaction by the fair and impartial manner in which he performed his duties. Give him your vote on election day and you will have no cause to regret it.

Benito Lujan, Republican candidate for probate judge is a clean and honorable man, courageous and intelligent. With him in the office of probate judge, estates of deceased persons will be closely and carefully looked after and he will see to it that administrators do their duty honestly and efficiently.

E. C. Abbott, Republican candidate for member of the council from this district, is making a gallant fight for election, and if elected will make the same kind of a fight for the best interests of the county, in the coming legislative assembly.

Very encouraging news comes from Socorro County, and it looks as if the Republicans there would give Senator Andrews and their legislative and county ticket a very satisfactory majority. The people of the county will serve their own best interests by doing so.

Another indication that the Roosevelt-Fairbanks ticket will be successful next Tuesday: Dr. Mary Walker is strongly supporting the Parker-Davis candidacy.
